

Closed helical path on a torus surface

Path winds 10 times around the tube while completing one major circuit, then closes on itself closed 10-turn helix

$u = t, v = 10t$ on the torus

same start and end point

Red curve: one continuous closed surface path, not an open stripe.

Light dashed mesh lines indicate back-side surface geometry hidden from the viewer in this orthographic projection.