

Closed helical path on a torus surface

Path winds 10 times around the tube while completing one major circuit, then closes on itself

Blue curve: one continuous closed surface path, not an open stripe.

Light dashed mesh lines indicate back-side surface geometry hidden from the viewer in this orthographic projection.